II About the strategy

Date published	2011
Signed by a minister	Yes
Duration	120 months
Number of pages	12

The approach: How does the department plan to use the broader environment in which it exists (element 1) to leverage its strengths and embrace its weaknesses (element 2) so that it can provide benefits in accordance with its vision (element 3)?

The approach is to set a strategic direction for the New Zealand energy sector to ensure energy markets are effective and efficient whilst being environmentally responsible.

Read more about the GDS's vision on page 1.
Is the strategy illustrated? No.

III Assessing stakeholder usefulness

If a public servant new to the policy area had an hour to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the approach (element 4) and the implementation and review processes (element 5)?

The key points of the issue and the outcomes sought are clear – although the outcomes could be set out in a more structured way. The ways in which the outcomes sought will be achieved are explained comprehensively.

If an uninformed member of the public had 30 minutes to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the purpose (element 3), the approach (element 4), the implementation and review processes (element 5) and how this approach fits with the broader goals of government (element 6)?

The overall purpose and strategic outcomes are easily understandable. However, there is no mention of review processes.
