II About the strategy

Date published	2011 March
Signed by a minister	Not signed
Duration	NK
Number of pages	13

The approach: How does the department plan to use the broader environment in which it exists (element 1) to leverage its strengths and embrace its weaknesses (element 2) so that it can provide benefits in accordance with its vision (element 3)?

The approach is to implement larger and longer-term aid programs in developing countries, especially in the Pacific, in order to align with their needs; this will be done by partnership with NGOs and the governments of these countries.

Read more about the GDS's vision on page 2.
Is the strategy illustrated? No.

III Assessing stakeholder usefulness

If a public servant new to the policy area had an hour to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the approach (element 4) and the implementation and review processes (element 5)?

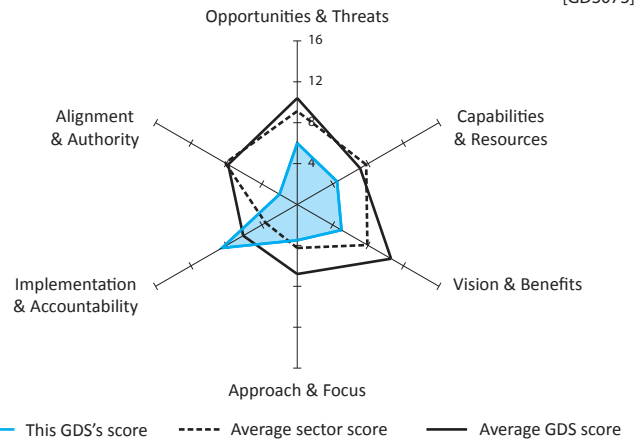

The key points of the issue and context are explained well. However, the outcomes sought are broad and lack specific goals and details on how they will be achieved.

If an uninformed member of the public had 30 minutes to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the purpose (element 3), the approach (element 4), the implementation and review processes (element 5) and how this approach fits with the broader goals of government (element 6)?

The overall purpose and strategic outcomes are not clear, despite there being a lot of explanatory information. There is no explicit discussion of the review processes.
