II About the strategy

Date published	2013
Signed by a minister	Yes
Duration	48 months
Number of pages	17

The approach: How does the department plan to use the broader environment in which it exists (element 1) to leverage its strengths and embrace its weaknesses (element 2) so that it can provide benefits in accordance with its vision (element 3)?

The approach is to establish a framework to advance the economic, security and political relationships with Australia by identifying investment and diplomatic opportunities which can be taken.

Read more about the GDS's vision on page 3.
Is the strategy illustrated? No.

III Assessing stakeholder usefulness

If a public servant new to the policy area had an hour to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the approach (element 4) and the implementation and review processes (element 5)?

The key points of the issue are clear; however, there is a lack of clarity as to what outcomes are sought. There is not enough specific discussion of how outcomes will be achieved. The structure of the GDS is not purposeful, and information on its vision is missing.

If an uninformed member of the public had 30 minutes to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the purpose (element 3), the approach (element 4), the implementation and review processes (element 5) and how this approach fits with the broader goals of government (element 6)?

The overall purpose is understandable; however, there is not enough explicit identification of the strategic outcomes in order to assess their connection to the broader purpose of the GDS. There is no discussion of review.
