II About the strategy

|                      |             |
|----------------------|-------------|
| Date published       | 2012 August |
| Signed by a minister | Yes         |
| Duration             | 60 months   |
| Number of pages      | 14          |

The approach: How does the department plan to use the broader environment in which it exists (element 1) to leverage its strengths and embrace its weaknesses (element 2) so that it can provide benefits in accordance with its vision (element 3)?

The approach taken is a kaupapa Māori one which identifies the areas needing prioritising in the Māori disability area.

Read more about the GDS's vision on page 5.
Is the strategy illustrated? Yes, see page 5.

III Assessing stakeholder usefulness

If a public servant new to the policy area had an hour to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the approach (element 4) and the implementation and review processes (element 5)?

The key points of the issue are clear, and there is full discussion of important contextual information such as Māori world-view concepts. There needs to be more discussion of the implementation of outcomes sought however, as currently the GDS lacks funding and time frame details.

If an uninformed member of the public had 30 minutes to read this GDS, would they be able to understand the purpose (element 3), the approach (element 4), the implementation and review processes (element 5) and how this approach fits with the broader goals of government (element 6)?

The overall purpose is clear, but the structure could be improved to make the strategic outcomes stand out more, as currently it is confusing. How the strategic outcomes will be achieved, and the discussion of review processes, are sufficiently covered.
